

Vote on Supporting the Laird's

There will be a brief business meeting at the beginning of the Worship Service March 8th for the purpose of voting on whether to begin to support missionaries Jason & Kathy Laird. They serve in aviation, church planting and administration in West Africa through ABWE (Association of Baptist for World Evangelism). They are based out of Togo, West Africa. If you were not here for their presentation, please go to our website, fbctpa.com, click on MESSAGES and listen to February 23rd (Answers Bible Class and the morning worship service) to learn about their ministry.

The funds are already in the budget for new missionaries and would be allocated to the Lairds. The present amount in that fund is $583.33 per month. The motion will include rounding that to $600 per month which increases the annual budget by $200. Members will receive a ballot on their way into the auditorium on the 8th and will be collected during the service.

If you are a member and cannot be here, you may pick up an absentee ballot at the welcome center today or contact Stephanie for one. The ballot must be returned to the office or vote received via email to fbcinfo@fbctpa.com by Thursday, March 4 at noon.

BIBLE STUDY STARTS THIS TUESDAY!

Ladies Bible Study Starts Tuesday, March 3, at 6:30 PM

Are you living a life full of stuff? Closets that are full? Schedules that are full? To do lists that are full? Busy at the business of life? Ecclesiastes tells us "All is vanity". Solomon reminds us that our thoughts and lives must be heavenward, not weighed down and encumbered with this world. This world is empty! In Him is fullness and joy!

Come join us as 4 ladies help you navigate through the unique book of Ecclesiastes!

Looking forward to this 8 week study with Colleen Kinney, Lynze Mewhort, Karla Pesesky, and Janis Steckiel.

Sign-up at the welcome center!
